

62nd Annual AMY Awards

2019 Call for Entries

Guidelines and Submission Process

AMY AWARDS

Welcome to the Atlanta Marketer of the Year (AMY) Awards call for entries presented by the Atlanta Chapter of the American Marketing Association. For 62 years it has been the premier annual awards competition in Atlanta, focused on honoring results-based marketing programs that help build and grow business.

The 2019 AMY Awards competition offers 20 opportunities to win an AMY Award Red Pencil. Open to both corporations and agencies, AMA Atlanta recognizes those who have come up with Big Ideas and turned them into Big Results.

MARKETER OF THE YEAR

Marketing programs don't create themselves. Behind each successful initiative is a creative, dedicated leader who inspires and brings the best out of their team. The AMY Awards competition has expanded to offering three nomination-based awards recognizing an individual – The Atlanta Marketer of the Year, and the Atlanta Rising Star Marketer of the Year.

The first award, established in 2007, recognizes agency principals and/or corporate marketers in Georgia who contributed their talent, leadership and vision to their organizations and to the field of marketing. The Rising Star award was new in 2017, and was established to recognize the contributions of marketers in the first five years of their career. Nomination submissions are free and self-nominations are welcome. Nomination details and deadline are listed below, in the Marketer of the Year section.

ABOUT AMA ATLANTA

Driving Member Value Through “Linkology”

AMA Atlanta is proud of its standing as the 3rd largest chapter in the American Marketing Association family, with over 900 members in the greater Atlanta area. AMA is an international organization with a membership of over 30,000 professionals in over 75 chapters.

HOW TO ENTER

1. Review and follow the Eligibility section to ensure that your work meets the criteria
2. Refer to the Category Listing to identify the category(s) in which your work will compete
3. Complete the payment process and submit your entry through the AwardStage portal at www.amyawardsatl.com

Submission of entries acknowledges the right of AMA Atlanta to use them for publication, exhibition and marketing of the AMY Awards Gala.

ELIGIBILITY

All work entered in the 2019 AMY Awards competition must have first appeared in the media between January 1, 2018 and December 31, 2018. Work must have been created by or for a Georgia-based company.

The expressed intent of the AMY Awards competition is to recognize and reward marketing excellence and work that has legitimately been used in the marketplace. Occasionally, an entry is submitted that appears to have been created outside the conventional agency-to-client-to-media marketing structure; as if the entry was created solely for the purpose of winning an award. This type of work is not accepted. All entries for marketing services must have been delivered for the purpose of raising awareness, credibility, value or decision and must have achieved results.

Should a question arise relative to the eligibility or legitimacy of any entry, the entrant agrees by their acceptance on the entry form to furnish the necessary documentation for review by the AMY Awards Committee. Failure to do so can be grounds for disqualification without refund of entry fees.

EVALUATION CRITERIA

Entries for each category are evaluated and scored by a panel of judges against four key criteria:

1. Objectives: Provide an overview of the program/campaign's qualitative and quantitative objectives. Clearly outline the situation and key performance indicators.
2. Strategy: Elaborate on the program strategy(s) clearly listing the target audience(s) and any audience insights.
3. Execution: Describe the tactical execution (creative, production, implementation, etc.) of the program.
4. Results: Tell us how the program delivered against objectives listed in question 1 and the impact (if any) to the overall business objectives. Be sure to outline qualitative and quantitative results.

All entries will be reviewed by the AMY Awards judging committee. To ensure objectivity in the judging process, judges will not be allowed to review entries in which they may have a vested interest. It is up to the discretion of the judges whether or not a winner will be selected for each category.

ENTRY SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Complete the Entry Submission Form which can be found online at:

<https://amaatlantaamyawards.awardstage.com/>

- Only results presented in the essay will be considered
- Increase readability by using bullet points
- Call out key pieces of information
- Remember – Less is More

It is not guaranteed that all categories will recognize a winner. Only submissions that provide solid results and exemplify the qualities of great marketing will be considered for finalist placement.

CREATIVE SUBMISSION DO'S & DON'TS

Please provide a single creative support file to accompany your essay submission. Category finalists will be highlighted in the AMY Awards event program so it is required that all files uploaded be print ready.

Files that do not follow the creative requirements will not be included in the entry for judge's review.

- DO submit in accepted formats: JPG, PDF, EPS
- DO provide a high resolution image: 300dpi, >1M, print ready
- DO provide URL's for website entries. For websites that require password access, it is suggested that entrants create a guest user account login for the purpose of AMY Awards judging.
